MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : Michael J. Malanick
Acting Deputy Director
for Administration

SUBJECT : White House Fellowships

Sir:

1. You may recall that last July when we were asked about participating in the White House Fellows program we advised you that, while we did not have a firm policy governing the situation, we saw no reason why we shouldn't accept a qualified and security-cleared candidate for a tour of duty with us. Further, the Office of General Counsel has no legal objection to such an arrangement. Therefore, we suggest that you mention our views to your successor as Bruce Hasenkamp requests in his letter to you.

2. We have prepared a reply for your signature to Bruce telling him of your intentions.

/s/ Michael J. Malanick

THE WHITE HOUSE

Dear George:

Any American who cares deeply about the quality of his government must say two things upon learning that you are leaving-- that this nation and its people have benefited immeasurably from and thank you for your long, varied, and distinguished service; and you will be missed.

I can say that as well for the White House Fellowship program of which you have been (and I hope will continue to be) a stalwart supporter and enthusiast. The Fellows who have met with you have been greatly enriched by the experience, and those who have been in this job have valued your enthusiasm for and frequent help to the program.

I regret that your departure means we will not have the opportunity of assigning a White House Fellow to you next year. I should like to keep alive the possibility of a Fellow's being placed with the Director of Central Intelligence, however, and would appreciate your mentioning it to your successor, when named, so that I may follow up with a conversation about it with him or her in April, when I meet with all those to whom the next class of Fellows may be assigned. Whatever you can do to pave the way will be greatly appreciated.

Again, many thanks for your considerable and valued support and help. I look forward to our paths continuing to cross or coincide in the years to come.

With best wishes,

Cordially,

Bruce H. Hasenkamp

Dear George:

Many thanks for taking the time to meet with the White House Fellows.

Your remarks regarding the role and functions of the CIA and the current challenges it faces were most interesting. Needless to say, the group found the session most stimulating and productive, and they were delighted of having the opportunity to meet with you and other members of your staff.

Thank you again for taking the time to meet with the group. By popular consensus the session is considered to be a highlight of the Fellowship year.

Sincerely,

Bruce

PRESIDENT'S
COMMISSION ON WHITE HOUSE FELLOWSHIPS
THE WHITE HOUSE

January 28, 1977

Dear Mr. Knoche:

Thank you for your letter of January 21, in response to mine addressed to then-Director-designate Sorensen. When a new Director is confirmed, I should appreciate your bringing him or her up-to-date on our correspondence and conversations.

The 1977-78 White House Fellows will be named by the President on May 23, 1977, and will be interviewed by potential principals (including, I trust, the Director of Central Intelligence) during the period June 20-24. At the end of that week, and certainly not later than the following Monday morning, all assignments of the new White House Fellows should be completed. Your Director would, in other words, know if he or she had a Fellow, and, if so, which one, by that date, and your processing procedures could begin at once.

Since, given the change in administrations, I anticipate that there will be a new Director of this Commission by April, when our placement and assignment interview details are usually worked out, I will ask him to call Mr. Janney to work out those mechanics at that time.

Thank you again for your interest in this matter. The idea of having a White House Fellow assigned to the Director of Central Intelligence is very exciting to me, and I hope and trust it can all be successfully worked out.

With best wishes,

Cordially,

Bruce H. Hasenkamp

Dear Mr. Hasenkamp:

Thank you for your letter of 7 January 1977 to Mr. Sorensen concerning the assignment of a White House Fellow to the Director of Central Intelligence.

First, I would like to say that we are very impressed with the selection criteria and membership in the White House Fellowship Program. Also, I share Mr. Bush's feeling that such an assignment to this Agency would be beneficial to the selected White House Fellow, the Director, and the Agency. As you may have gathered from your discussions with Mr. Ben Evans, our Executive Secretary, there are certain security, medical and personnel processing procedures which may take somewhat longer to complete than may be the case with processing for other Government entities. With this in mind, we would appreciate receiving a nomination as soon as practicable. Obviously, I cannot speak for Mr. Bush's successor, but I believe that we can proceed on the assumption that he will share my interest in participating in this very worthwhile program.

Mr. Fred Janney, our Director of Personnel, will be glad to work out the mechanics of processing your nominee and to discuss this matter further with you. He can be reached on [redacted]

We appreciate your writing to us concerning this program and look forward to hearing from you again.

Sincerely,

/s/ E. H. Knoche

COMMISSION ON WHITE HOUSE FELLOWSHIPS

THE WHITE HOUSE

Executive Registry

January 7, 1977

Dear Mr. Sorensen:

Congratulations upon your selection by President-elect Carter to be the Director of Central Intelligence. The Chairman and members of this Commission and the White House Fellows join me in extending best wishes to you as you prepare to assume your new role of service to the American people.

The White House Fellowship program, as you may know, was established in 1964 by President Johnson for the purpose of identifying especially promising young leaders, and providing them, early in their careers, with a year of exposure to, involvement with, and education in the making of public policy and the exercise of public leadership.

Fellows are selected through a nationwide competition, and serve for one year. Although they are Presidential appointees, the Fellows and the program administration, including the selection process and the membership of this Commission, are strictly non-partisan. The current class, like their predecessor groups, includes Democrats, Republicans and independents.

The Fellows as a group participate in a wide-ranging program of seminars with leaders and opinion-makers in both the public and private sectors. (I enclose, for your information, a list of last year's seminars.) This broad examination of leadership and issues is focused more particularly through each Fellow's assignment, to the personal staff of the Vice President, members of the Cabinet, heads of major agencies, and principal members of the President's staff. A list of the 1976-77 Fellows and their assignments is enclosed, along with two copies of our current brochure, which more fully describes the program and features biographies of the current Fellows.

Although a White House Fellow has never been assigned to the Director of Central Intelligence during the past twelve years, George Bush and I have discussed the idea several times in recent months. We both feel that such an assignment would be enormously beneficial, to the White House Fellow, to the Director, and to the Agency, and we made preliminary plans for the Director to participate in interviewing the 1977-78 White House Fellows, after they are named by the President in May. I hope you will share George's enthusiasm for the idea, and that we can continue to plan for possible assignment of a Fellow from the next class to you.

Mr. B.C. Evans and I have discussed some of the mechanics and logistics that would be involved in placement of a Fellow with you. I will be in touch with you in April about the precise procedures and to answer any questions you have about the program.

Congratulations again! I look forward to working with you, and hope you will call me whenever the Fellowship office may be of assistance to you. I also hope that it will be possible for you to meet with the 1976-77 class of Fellows sometime after you are confirmed, as a major part of their education in government.

Sincerely yours,

Bruce H. Hasenkamp

Dear Hank,

I was in Colorado Springs last weekend and attended the Cooking Club supper that Dad sponsored. It was great-but-4 courses of Chincoteague oysters and three courses of roasted local duck gets a bit overwhelming!!! It really was fun and the folks, assorted sisters and pets are all fine.

The White House Fellows class that starts on September 1 was recently assigned to various agencies and a good friend of mine from New York, [redacted] has been assigned to the CIA. Since he will need at least one friend who carries a big stick, I hope you get to know and work with him. He had distinguished military service in Vietnam, although in the Army not the Marines, and has been with the law firm of Milbank, Tweed, Hadley and McCloy (Ambassador John McCloy) here on Wall Street for several years.

I've been here almost one year and the job and career opportunities continue to be outstanding. I do, however, miss some of the excitement of Washington.

Take care and my best to the family.

Sincerely,

Marsh

Dear Bruce:

Thank you for your kind and thoughtful letter and I can only repeat what I have said in the past about the White House Fellowship program. I am a staunch supporter of it and feel that it provides both the Government and the participants with opportunities for an exchange of ideas and experiences which are rich and rewarding.

The CIA would be most willing to accept a White House Fellow for a tour of duty. Such an individual would of course require security clearance for access to sensitive information.

Sincerely,

George Bush
